NEW HORIZONS

CARILLON
1968
Methodist College
Fayetteville, N. C.
Vol. 5

With the dawn of a second decade

A young college stirs from infancy

Paced by the changing seasons

A flegling comes of age

Young minds grow restless and a college comes alive

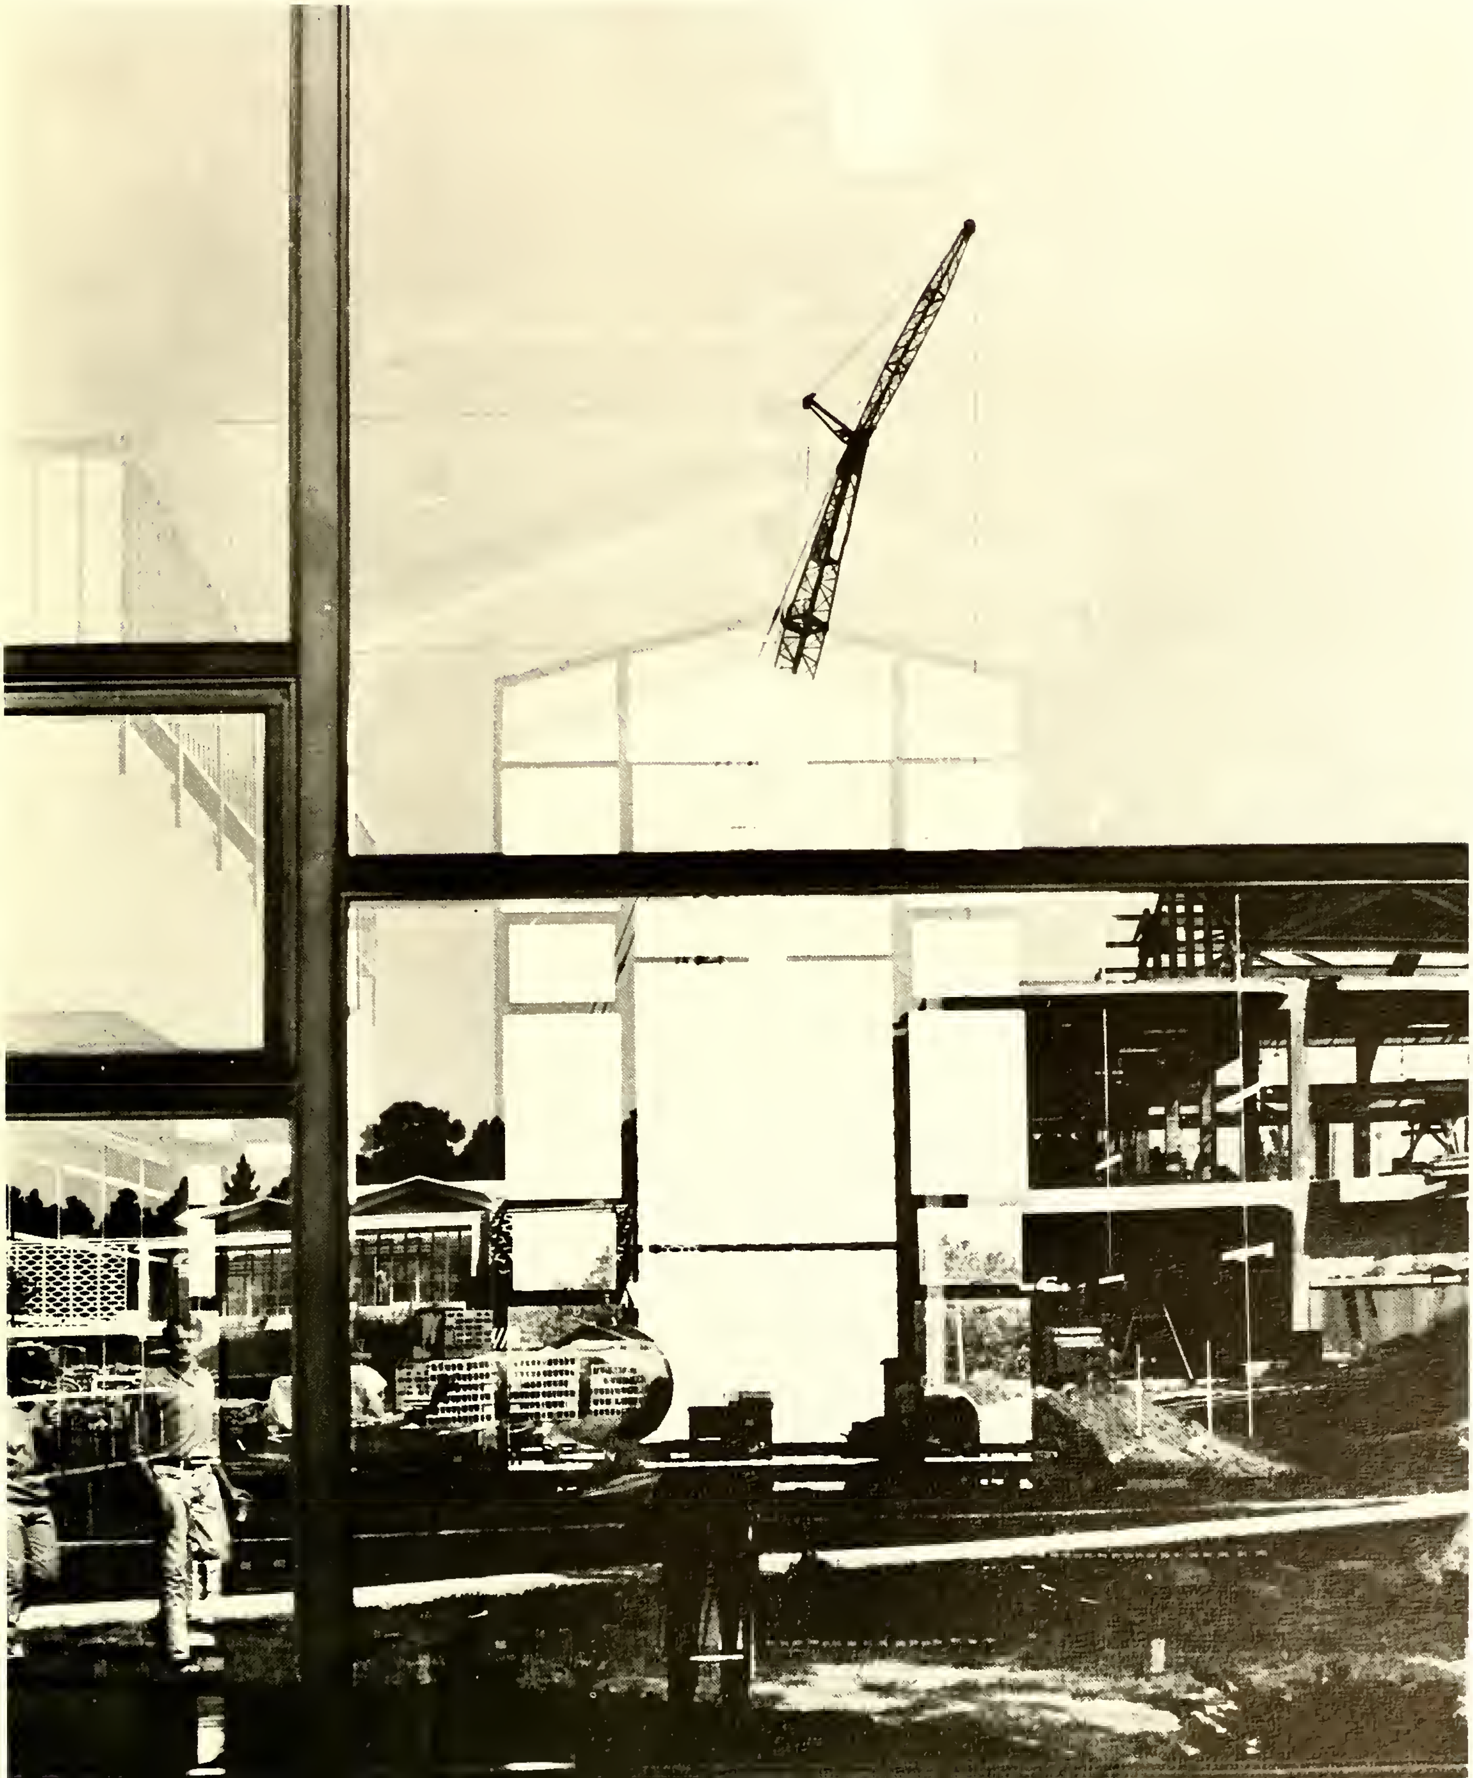
A new year and a new search have begun



As chimes toll the hour

Music fills the air

And mighty cheers ring out

For sons of Green and Gold

Time passes quickly, with but few pauses

In the endless
quest for knowledge

A modern campus

Is the scene of new horizons

new discoveries

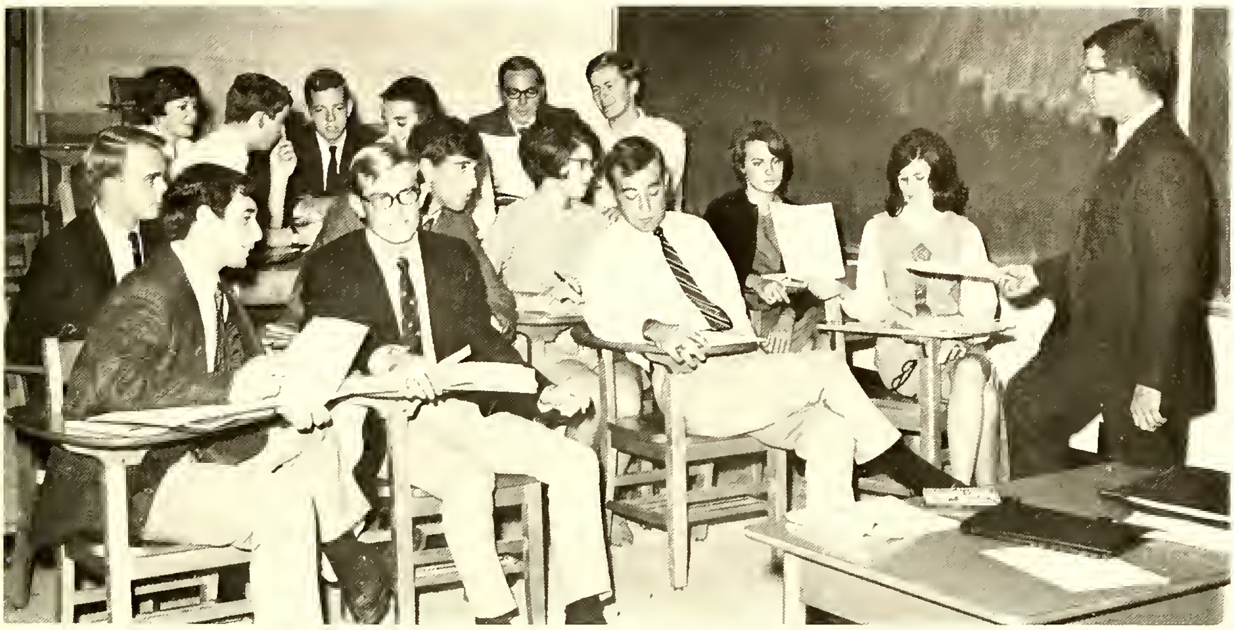
About Man

and about Life

In carefree moments friends gather

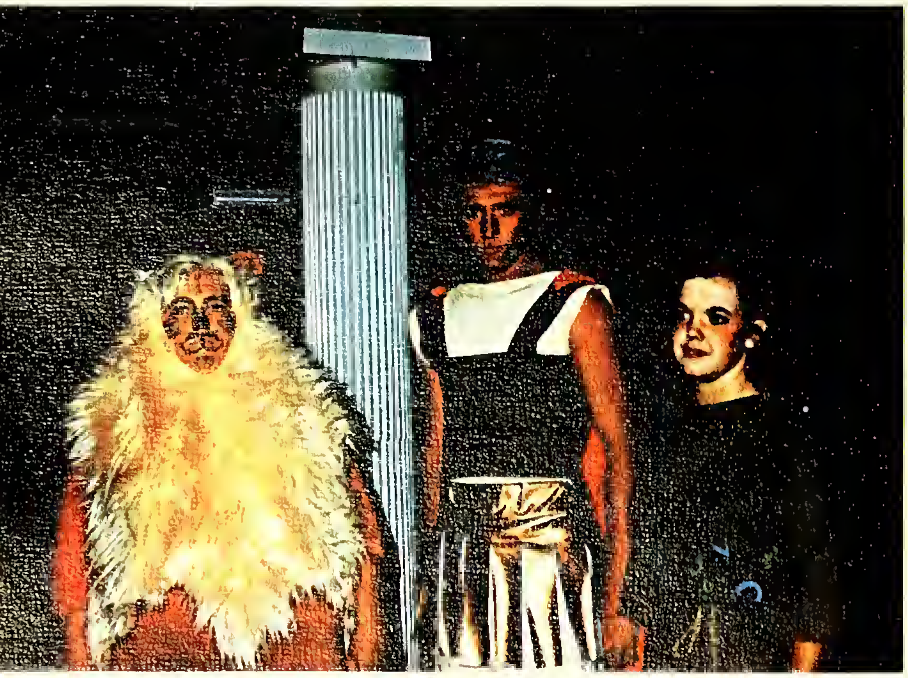


And the pressure of study yields to countless diversions

It's a glorious life . . .

But thoughts

turn to the Future



As we move

ever forward

Toward new and broader horizons

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater!
Raise we now our hearts to thee,
Singing forth our highest praises,
Pledging our deep loyalty.
Green shall grow they fields of learning;
Gold shall glow they torch of truth.
METHODIST COLLEGE, God go with thee
Now and through eternity.

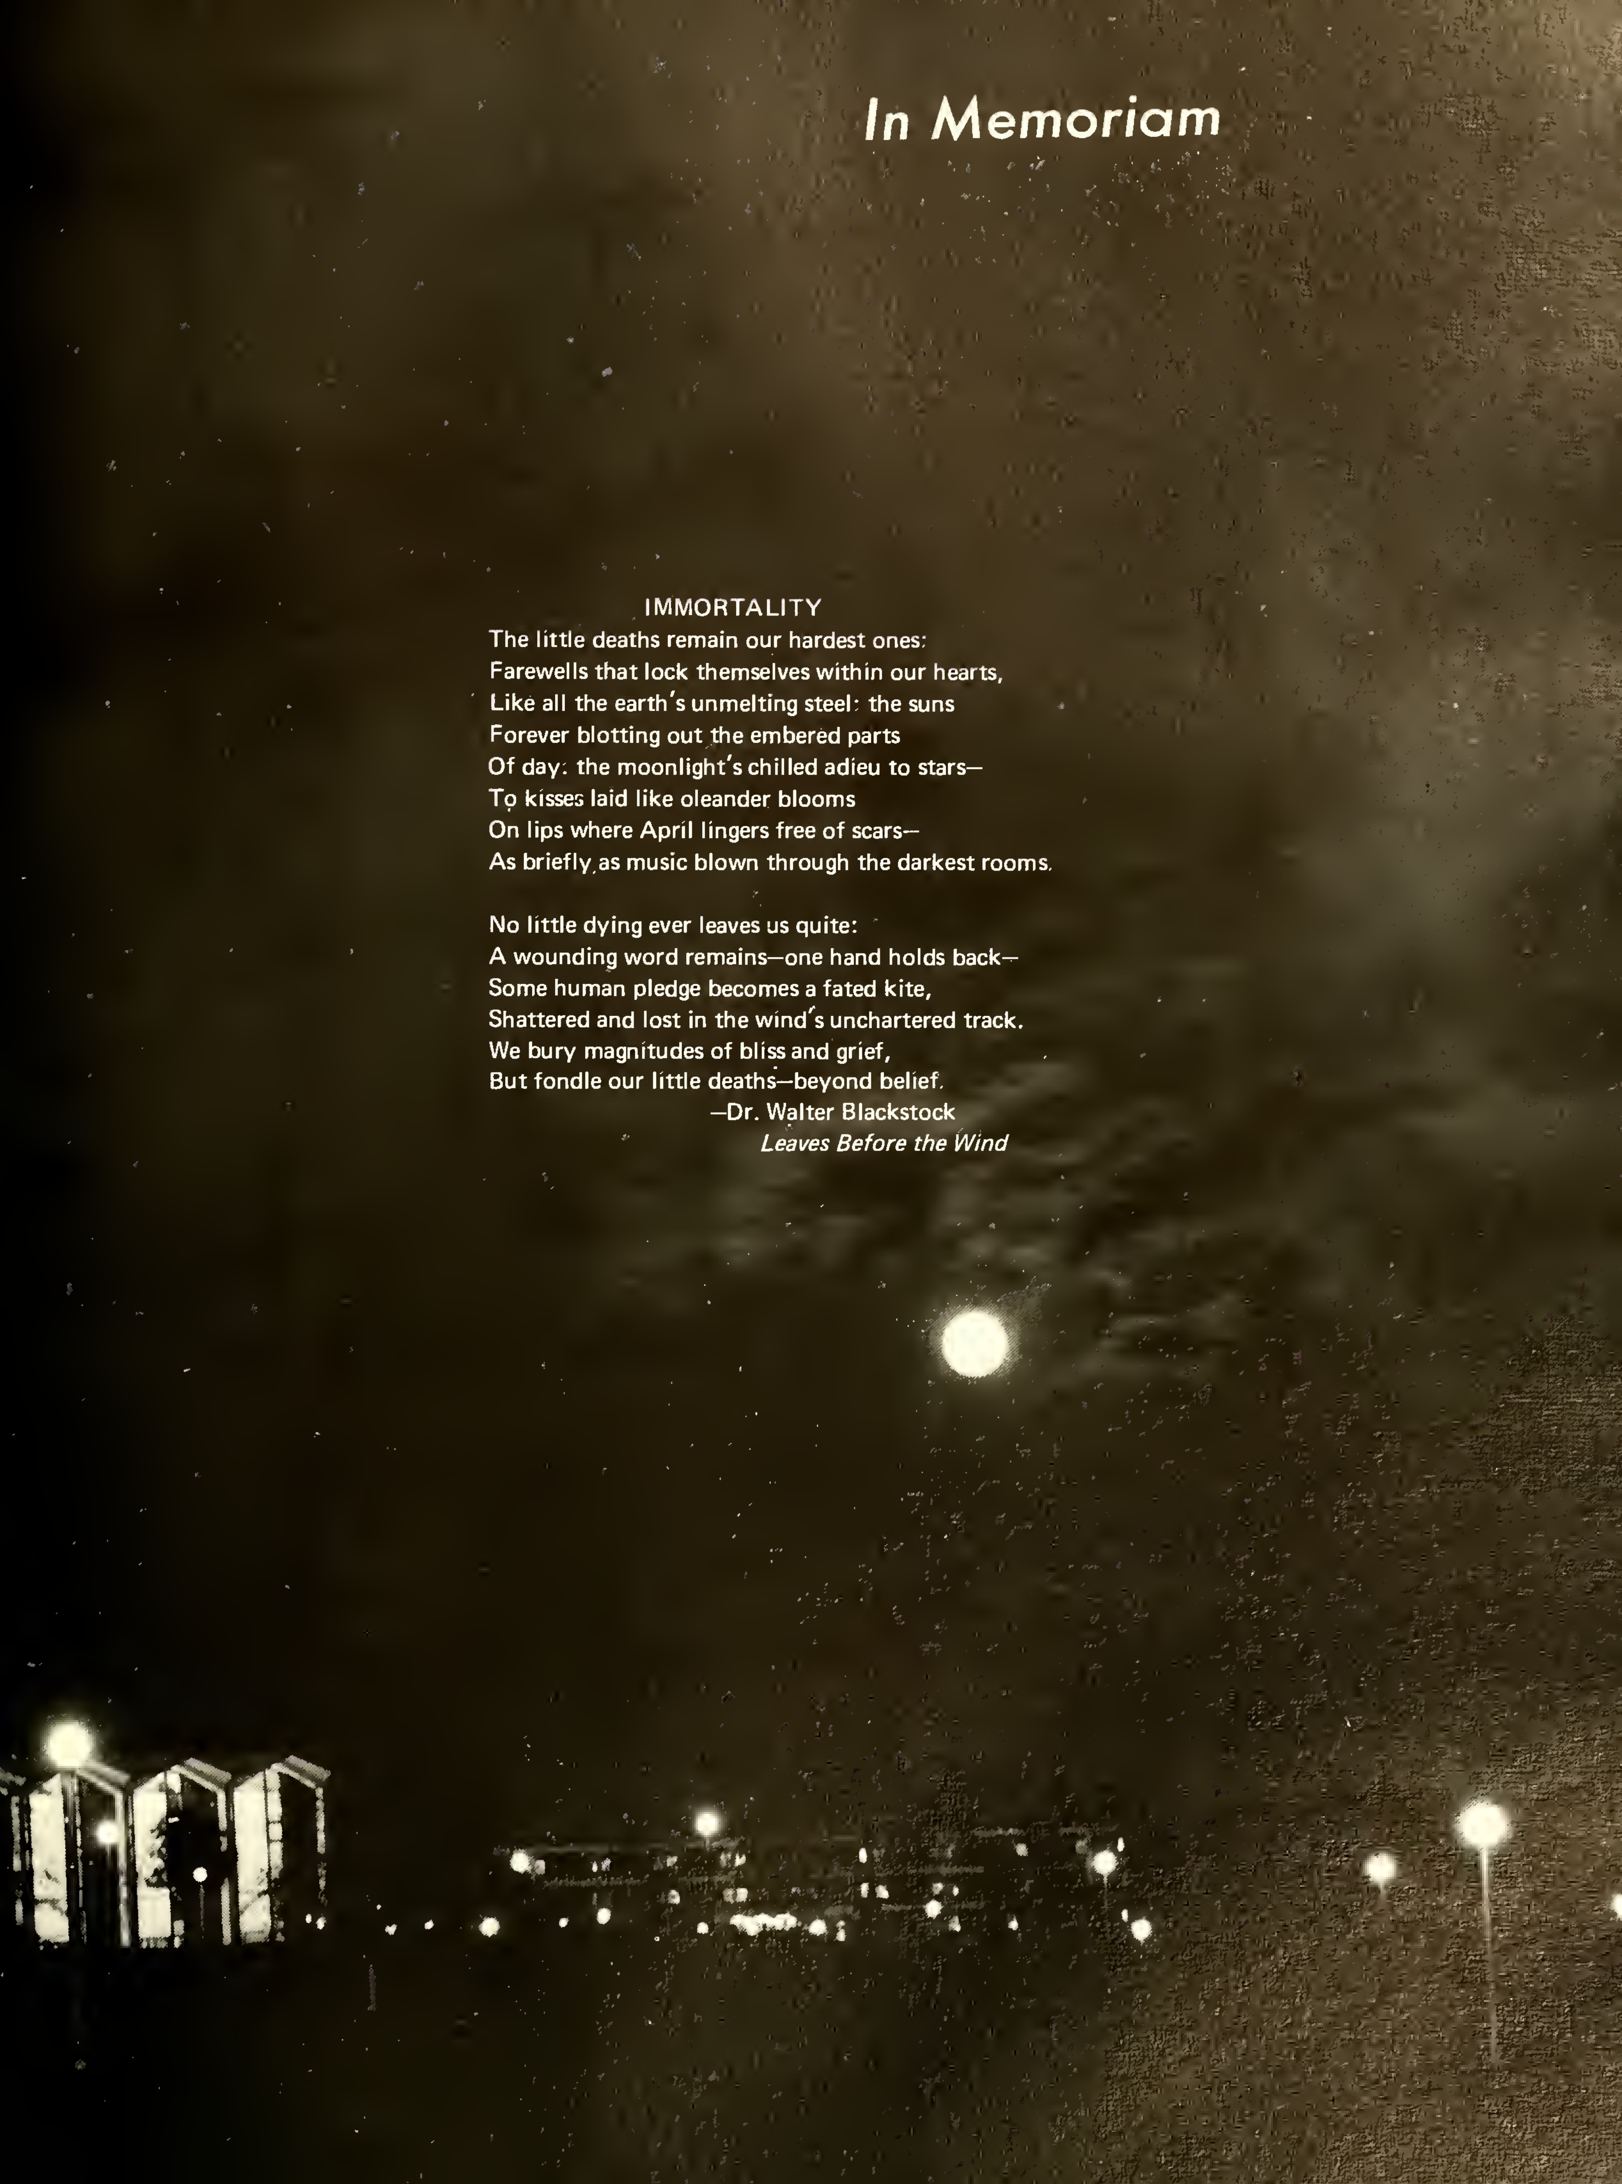
In Memoriam



IMMORTALITY

The little deaths remain our hardest ones:
Farewells that lock themselves within our hearts,
Like all the earth's unmelting steel: the suns
Forever blotting out the embered parts
Of day: the moonlight's chilled adieu to stars—
To kisses laid like oleander blooms
On lips where April lingers free of scars—
As briefly as music blown through the darkest rooms.

No little dying ever leaves us quite:
A wounding word remains—one hand holds back—
Some human pledge becomes a fated kite,
Shattered and lost in the wind's unchartered track.
We bury magnitudes of bliss and grief,
But fondle our little deaths—beyond belief.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association serves as . . ."the supreme executive, legislative, and judicial instrument for directing student life and providing democratic student government in all phases of student activities . . ."

Operating under the new Constitution and By-laws, the executive branch directed the course of government and made its influence felt in both the social and academic areas of student life. Some of the accomplishments of the past year included: record proceeds from the sale of activity cards, "big-name" entertainment that attracted more students than ever before, the publication of the first set of S.G.A. archives, and a more active and efficient committee system.

Legislative Branch

Playing a vital role in an effective and successful Student Government Association is the Senate, composed of four representatives and an alternate from each class. During the year the legislative branch enacted important bills concerning The Impeachment and Removal from Office of Class Officers, The Vacancies and Succession of Class Officers, The Introduction of Legislation, The Appointment of an Assistant Secretary outside the membership of the Senate, Permanent Campaign and Election Rules, and Selection of Delegates to the State Student Legislature.

Judicial Branch

In order to enforce the laws and statutes of the Association, there exists a judicial system composed of the Student-Faculty Judicial Committee, the High Court and the dormitory courts.

An attorney general, appointed by the S.G.A. president, investigates, indicts, and prosecutes all cases coming before the High Court. The class defense attorneys are elected by their respective units.

Alumni Association

In the spring of 1964 the first class was graduated from Methodist College. This event added to the growth and maturity of the college by giving it forty-six very proud alumni.

Although the earning of a degree means greater opportunity for success, a degree carries with it the responsibility of each alumnus to help insure that the opportunities for learning at Methodist College are afforded those who follow in the future. So that the responsibilities being accepted by Alumni now and for generations to come might be more fruitfully applied, the Methodist College Alumni Association was organized in the spring of 1965.

One of the most outstanding opportunities for service for alumni is the Alumni Loyalty Fund. Money contributed to this systematic fund goes into the general fund for support of the college.

Realizing that the reputation of Methodist College will be determined largely by the performance of its graduates, the alumni accept the challenge to excel in life and to repay their debt to their Alma Mater.

Since graduating in 1965, Walter Turner has served as a Peace Corps volunteer in the Philippines.

Chorus

The Methodist College Chorus is a select group which has been active in providing entertainment at school functions as well as off-campus events. The Chorus has traveled to New Bern, Burlington, and Sanford, and has made an extensive tour of central North Carolina. Handel's "Israel in Egypt" was performed with the Community Chorus and the Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra for the Spring Concert program.

Green and Gold Masque Keys

The Green and Gold Masque Keys, the Methodist College drama club, was established to foster the interest of students in drama and to afford opportunities for its members to develop their talents in the theater arts.

During the first semester, the club presented "The Night of January 16th," which was unique in that part of its cast was chosen from the audience to serve as the jury. The play, especially its humorous surprise ending, proved to be very popular with the audience.

The Masque Keys decided to present three one-acts during second semester.

Art Club

The Fifth Dimension Art Club's two main goals this year have been to become more active as a club with school functions and to use different methods of learning more about the artistic world today. This year the club decorated for the Homecoming Dance in a psychedelic mood, which is the tempo of today. Also, the club held a sidewalk show open to everyone in Fayetteville, participated in a show at "The Gallery," and is actively planning for the Second Annual Purchase Prize Awards show in May. Mr. Jack Mitchell, an artist residing in Fayetteville, gave a most informative and enlightening lecture for the club. In short, the Fifth Dimension hopes to positively promote an intellectual atmosphere and to bring the art world nearer to the Methodist College student.

Circle K

As a member club of the largest men's organization on the American college campus, the Circle K Club of Methodist College has endeavored throughout the year to do service to the college and community.

The club held various fund-raising projects, high-lighted by the first annual Miss Boiler Plant Pageant. Among the activities of the 30-member club were a campus clean-up campaign, the presentation of ballot boxes to the S.G.A., and the construction of a Nativity scene for presentation to the Davis Memorial Library.

The Circle K Club entertained the N.C. Wesleyan Circle K Club at an Inter-club Meeting in February. The members of the club attended a Workshop and Training Conference at N.C. State University. Attending the District Convention in March were several members of the club. At the end of the 1967-68 year, plans were being made to send delegates to the 13th Annual Convention of Circle K International to be held in Philadelphia in August.

Spanish Club

"Let us have a better mutual understanding" is the project theme of the Esperanza Spanish Club. The goal of this year's club has been to raise three thousand dollars in order to send more students to Spain. With this objective in mind, the members have worked on projects such as dances, candy sales, and a Spring Fashion Show. These along with several non-profit activities have created a lasting tradition for the club.

The Spanish Club meets to discuss the spring fashion show.

Science Club

The main objective of the Science Club is to stimulate interest in scientific and mathematical fields. The club presently holds membership in the touring lecture series of the Atomic Engery Commission and in the North Carolina Academy of Science which bring authorities to the campus. The club emphasizes student participation at meetings by encouraging members to present demonstrations and lectures. Regular meetings are supplemented by local interest tours, by an annual fall cookout, and by weekend trips sponsored by the N.C. Collegiate Academy of Science. The Science Club's service project this year is to work in conjunction with a local garden club to arrange a natural garden in the south courtyard of the science building.

The History and Political Science Club is designed to foster and develop interest in history and political science and to keep abreast of contemporary issues.

Activities included a field trip to Appalachian State University for a seminar on the Cold War. The club sponsored several guest lecturers, including Col. Wilbur Outlaw of the John Birch Society and historian Dr. Theodore Ropp from Duke. The club also enjoyed several movies and socials during the year.

The Methodist College Chapter of the Student Education Association exists to provide opportunities for prospective teachers to develop leadership skills and to become acquainted with the history, ethics, and programs of pro-professional teacher organizations. Its members join in a movement with other educators to improve themselves as teachers, to raise professional standards and to better the schools of the state and nation. This year members have taken an active part in the local school system by volunteering their services as aides at the Day Care Center for Retarded Children and at the Hillsboro Street School.

Collegiate Young Republicans

The Collegiate Republican Club endeavors to inform interested students of the ideals, goals, and party organization of the Republican Party through speakers, tours, trips, and investigation. The club also provides an avenue by which all political thought can be compared and contrasted in debate and informal discussion.

The main belief of the club holds that each man is capable of making a choice. Therefore, by presenting both sides of the political spectrum, on an unbiased level, one may select the party best suited to his beliefs.

The Methodist College Economics and Business Club is a new club. It held its first meeting on November 27, 1967. Its purpose as set forth in the club's constitution is "To bring practical business experience from the community directly to the students and to establish more interest and activity in the business field than can be obtained from classroom proceedings."

Several guest speakers were sponsored by the club, including Ronnie Tuthill, the personnel manager of Burlington Industries' Lakedale Plant in Fayetteville. Dan V. Townsend, assistant personnel for Black and Deckers' Fayetteville Plant, narrated a film on industry's role in the community.

Pastiche

Pastiche, the Methodist College literary club, provides a golden opportunity to MC's budding authors and poets. The staff, headed by president Dennis Bruce, surveys submitted material and chooses the best to be published in Tapestry. The editors and staff are quite demanding, so that the student author feels a justified sense of pride in seeing his work in print.

Unpacking the first edition of Tapestry are Dennis Bruce, First Semester Editor; Frank Lee, Second Semester Editor; and Dr. Blackstock, Advisei.

Music Club

The student chapter of the Music Educators National Conference is composed of those students interested in a career in music education. The club meets once a month and programs are presented by music educators in the area. The club sponsored a bake sale at the beginning of the year to obtain funds for various activities to be held during the year. In November, several members attended the annual MENC convention held at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. The club gave a spaghetti dinner for the students of the music department and has given receptions after concerts held in the Student Union.

sMALL TALK

sMALL TALK's job is to find and present news of interest to the students, faculty, and administration of Methodist College. Publishing a six-page issue every two weeks except for special editions at Christmas, May Week, and the end of the year, sMALL TALK is now in its eighth year. Under the last several editors, the paper has undergone tremendous growth, growing from a four-page monthly with a circulation of 900 to its present size and a circulation of 1,400. sMALL TALK is a member of the Associated Collegiate Press.

Carillon

The aim of the '68 CARILLON staff was to produce a larger and more colorful yearbook. Implicit in this aim was the need to cover all aspects of campus life and to employ new and creative ideas in terms of theme and format.

The task fell to a small but able staff, which attempted to capture and convey in visual form the highlights of a very important year . . . a year of NEW HORIZONS.

Methodist Student Movement

The Methodist Student Movement is the campus organization for students who are affiliated with the Methodist Church. Highlights of the year's activities included a hike and picnic in November, a caroling party in December, and a weekend camping trip in February. The club has assisted local churches in planning youth work and presented the "Royal Feast" in connection with the Fine Arts Week in May.

The purpose of the Baptist Student Union is to cooperate with other college chapters in supporting the activities of the state council. The organization now attends annual meetings of the state B.S.U., supports state projects, and provides study of religious issues of contemporary man. It also offers special services such as films and discussion groups in order to provide for more student participation. This year the B.S.U. has emphasized Christian fellowship, projects including aid for orphans in Vietnam, preparation of a food basket during Thanksgiving, and presentation of programs in area churches of the supporting Association.

Soccer

Last year's first season was no deterrent to the effort of this year's squad. Hard work, team coordination and perserverance culminated in victory.

After defeating Guilford, a new spirit in the team arose. Homecoming spectators witnessed this when the team fought to a scoreless tie against Pfeiffer, a very formidable opponent.

An exciting season closed officially when it was announced that Howie Arden was nominated to the All-South Soccer Team for 1967.

Editorially . . .

Speaking for the entire staff I would like to thank the following persons for their assistance in producing this yearbook:

Mr. Bruce Pulliam
Mr. Charles McAdams
Dr. L. Stacy Weaver
John Roberts Company
Town & Country Studios
Colorcraft of Fayetteville
Mr. Ed Goldston
Mr. Bob Chappell

Now that our job is done, I would like to stress one thing. The '68 CARILLON is the result of a lot of hard work by a dedicated staff. These were the students who chose the theme, planned the format, sold advertisements, took the pictures, wrote and typed copy, and worked with every significant group on campus.

In short, they are part of the select minority to whom the '68 CARILLON is dedicated—namely the ACTIVE students of M.C. It is students such as these, students who are willing to give something of themselves for the betterment of their college, for whom we should all be grateful. After all, where would we be without them?
